

THE SHOESTRING STRIP

Thomas Murphy Nominated for Chairmanship of Strip Board
 By BILLIE ROBERTSON
 FA 8-7385

The regular meeting of the Shoestring Strip Advisory Board met last Tuesday evening at the Normandale Recreation Center. Due to the absence of the chairman, Thomas Murphy, Harold Underander presided at the meeting. Joe Goss brought us up to date on the work being done in the area.

The items discussed were the rezoning changes to be made soon; the paving of 224th, and also of 223rd, which will be done by Oct. 2; the recent installation of the sidewalk on Normandale to Carlsbad on the Hallidale School children; the coming project of the paving of Plaza Del Amo in the 1600 block; and the crosswalk for the children of the 223rd Street School.

Also mentioned and discussed was the forthcoming dinner for the other Council members in the other advisory boards in the Harbor. This dinner will be Nov. 6, in the main hall of the recreation center. Further details will be posted later on.

After a very interesting meeting, refreshments were served to a good crowd.

I'm sorry I forgot to mention that the following people were nominated for officers for the coming year: Thomas Murphy for chairman; Herman Eisenbeiss, first vice chairman; Cecil Johnston, second vice chairman; Mrs. James Fryback, secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Robertson for treasurer. At the October meeting nominations from the floor will be accepted.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Albaugh of 223rd St. have been entertaining Willis' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Buckman from Des Moines, Iowa, who brought another boy with them. A lot of swimming and sight seeing has kept all of the Albaugh family and their company on the go.

Over the Labor Day holiday some of the residents went a gaddin'. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cameron visited Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carlisle in Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kollmeyer traveled to San Diego to see and to visit Mr. and Mrs. Louis Siepker who are Edward's parents. Some people are lucky to be able to loaf, huh?

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sacco are the proud parents of a big "bouncing" boy. When I say big I mean big. On Friday morning this wee but large baby made an appearance into this world weighing in at 10 lbs. and 4 ozs.

The Saccos live at 1040 W. 227th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferrara of 226th St., are entertaining Mrs. Ferrara's cousin from Lynwood in exchange for their daughter, Mary, who is visiting in Lynwood. Mary has taken in Knott's Berry Farm and the Farmers Market and the Ferraras have taken Tommie to the Pike, Parks and swimming. Seems to me like this is a real good idea.

Some new neighbors have been added to the neighborhood. The people of 226th St. are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trujillo and son, Theodore, who is a senior at UCLA, and a daughter, Bernedette. They are making their home at 1026 W. 226th and have moved from West L. A.

Such a happy time, a golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kadmas, of 1564 W. 223rd St., and their five children went to Dickinson, North Dakota, last month for Mr. Kadmas' parents Golden Wedding Anniversary and a family reunion of the 10 Kadmas children. Besides seeing so many relatives, the Kadmas saw many spots of interest and visited many friends, but they were very glad to get back home. Home always looks so good when we are away from it for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Loury of 1562 W. 223rd St. and their three children have just returned from a trip to visit Fresno to Mrs. Loury's grandparents. They also spent five days at Big Bear. Many hours were spent on horseback.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Meara and their two girls visited Mrs. O'Meara's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hobi, in Oregon. They toured the surrounding territory and then stopped at the Lake of the Woods for some camping and hiking.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jacobson and son Virgil, of 1521 W. 220th St., are away touring the coast and Canada. They have been gone four weeks doing nothing but gabbing and resting. Many hours of driving and loafing are the way they are spending their vacation.

To turn the tables the Harald Muths have stayed home and have had Mr. Muth's mother, Mrs. Melania Muth and son Robert from Chicago, Ill., visiting them. They have toured Mexico, Disneyland, and have gone swimming, which was the first time Robert was able to swim in the ocean, that is, our ocean.

A luau was the highlight of the evening recently for the Deuschle family. Mr. and Mrs. Drew Deuschle took a trip to the Hawaiian Islands this past summer and so they decided to entertain some of their friends in the real island style. The Deuschles live on 223rd St.

Last Aug. 18 in the patio of their home, the Deuschles served a luau to 20 of their friends. The real thing was served which consisted of fish and poi and many other dishes which is a custom of the islands. The dress of the Hawaiians, "Muu-Muu," was worn by everyone and leis were passed out at the door. Real Hawaiian music was played by a band.

Later on that week, another luau was enjoyed by many friends held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sutton, sister of Mrs. Deuschle. The Suttons lived many years on the islands and now make their home in San Diego.

Seems to me like everyone is taking or just getting back from their vacations. Here is a few of them and where they have been and what they have been doing:

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Meara and their two girls visited Mrs. O'Meara's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hobi, in Oregon. They toured the surrounding territory and then stopped at the Lake of the Woods for some camping and hiking.

Little Patricia Sue Lytle is nine years old now and celebrated her birthday with a lovely party last Saturday afternoon in the backyard of her home at 1625 W. 223rd St.

Mrs. J. T. Lytle and Mrs. Ed Loney helped Patty celebrate by being co-hostesses to seven of her little friends. They included Susan Dennis, Johnnie Loney, Charles Marceal, Ruben Marceal, Lois Little, Wendy Tincannon, and Rosemary Tincannon.

Many games were played with Ruben and Rosemary walking off with the prizes. After ice cream and cake, the children went home with balloons, favors and with watermelon all over their faces.
